

How do you model adding/subtracting integers using Algebra Tiles?

How can you model the additive inverse using tiles?

How can multiplying/dividing integers be modeled using an area model?

